Another Shameful Act by Woyane's Hired Guns

It pains us to report to you that Shaleqa Yoseph Yazew and Mogus Biruk are once again set to stifle Kinijit's operation in North America. This time round, their targets are Kinijit websites who educate and inform the public and who play major roll in the unprecedented lobbying effort to secure the release of imprisoned Kinijit leaders. Indeed these websites have become the voices of seventy million voiceless Ethiopians who live under one of the most repressive regimes in Africa.

Targeting Kinijit's operation and especially strangling Kinijit web sites is exactly Meles Zenawi's idea of a perfect hiatus. The "Vocal Diaspora", as he often calls it, is his nightmare. It is now turning out to be Shaleqa's and Moges's nightmare too. That is why the duo conspired to fraudulently register Kinijit and its emblem at the US Patent & Trade Mark Office as if it were their personal property. For goodness sake! Kinijit is way past being personal or organizational property. It is the spirit and treasured asset of millions of Ethiopians. If the action of the two does not demonstrate the height of fraud and treachery what does? Which reminds one of the adage "If it quacks like a duck and walks like a duck, then it most likely is a duck" If the duo's dreams and aspirations coincide with that of Meles, who these individuals are aligned with then becomes a mutt case.

Pursuant to the vicious intervention of the duo, Kinijit web sites in the USA have received notice from their web hosting organizations of trademark related violation. Consequently, the web sites are requested to resolve the problem within 48 hours or face shut down.

While this is one of many conspiracies and hurdles Kinijit supporters in the Diaspora are prepared to face, it is a pity that valuable time and resource is wasted to ward such feeble inconvenience while Meles Zenawi continues to walk over millions of Ethiopians and while the true sons and daughters of Ethiopia languish in Kaliti prison. Meantime, the Meles camp has something to celebrate about courtesy of the good offices of Yoseph & Mogus. But Meles as well as the duo know their political days are numbered.

We will inform you of developments as the course of action we are taking unfolds.
